Trustee Deveron Gibbons called the meeting to order. Trustees Natlie Figgers, Kelvin Lawson, Loryn May, Belvin Perry, Jr., Kenward Stone, and Michael White were in attendance and established a quorum.

Approval of July 30, 2024, DSO and Athletics Committee Meeting Minutes

Trustee Lawson motioned for approval; Trustee Stone seconded the motion.

A roll call vote on the motion was administered, and the results were as follows:

Trustee Name	Vote

Trustee Figgers	Yes
Trustee Lawson	Yes
Trustee May	Yes
Trustee Perry	Yes
Trustee Stone	Yes
Trustee White	Yes

The motion passed, unanimously.

FY 2024-2025 Foundation Operating Budget Amendment

Dr. Donald Palm presented the FY 2024-2025 Foundation Operating Budget Amendment.

The amendment approves funding for the VP-Director of Athletics position. The Foundation Board approved funding for a total amount of $132,063, of which $115,445 is for the position's base salary and $16,618 is for the position's fringe benefits.

This funding will support a base salary of $230,000 with $20,000 of supplemental support that will be specifically tied to performance metrics as identified by President Beard and the BOT for a permanent VP/AD for the 2024-2025 fiscal year.

Trustee Lawson motioned for approval of the FY 2024-2025 Foundation Operating Budget Amendment; Trustee Perry seconded the motion. The motion passed, unanimously.

DSO Bylaws Update

Trustee Gibbons provided the committee with an overview of this informational item. He stated that the bylaws for all the DSOs were not aligned and needed to be updated to ensure they all agree with guidelines outlined by University Regulations, SUS, and BOG guidelines. The Committee discussed this item, ensuring that the recommendations outlined in the Gift Report be included in the DSO Bylaws discussion as well as ensuring that the DSOs and their leadership are included in this review process.

Dr. Palm informed the Board that the Corrective Action Plan, reviewed at yesterday's Audit & Compliance Committee Meeting addresses the recommendations from the Gift Report and Trustee Gibbons ensured the Committee that he has already discussed this issue with the DSO Leadership.

The Committee agreed that Trustee Gibbons and Dr. Palm would work to provide a written request to the DSO leadership outlining what is needed for them to better align their bylaws and/or operating policies with current regulations. Trustee Cliatt agreed to assist them with this request and the committee also requested to review the ask before it is presented to the DSO leadership. The Committee agreed to allow all Foundation Board members whose terms end on December 31, 2024, to continue to serve until the bylaw's alignment is completed. Trustee Gibbons and Dr. Palm assured the committee that each Foundation Board member up for renewal had been contacted and informed of the bylaw's alignment process.

The Committee discussed the timeline for the bylaw's alignment process, citing that it would need to be completed before their December meeting and the Foundation Board's November board officer elections. Trustee Gibbons and Dr. Palm will work to develop a timeline that works within the identified constraints and inform the BOT if a special meeting will need to be scheduled prior to the December meeting. The Committee recognized all DSOs for their time, talent and treasure and commended them for their efforts in self-governance that is beneficial to the University.

I. BACKGROUND AND METHODOLOGY

The Board of Trustees (BOT) of Florida A&M University (FAMU) requested a review of the bylaws of the FAMU Foundation. To accomplish this, the University asked Alexander Haas to conduct such a review and provide a report with recommendations where appropriate for strengthening the governance and performance of the Foundation at America's leading HBCU.

Our perspective on FAMU and the Foundation is shaped by our collective experience providing counsel to more than 100 university-related foundations across the country, including eight HBCUs and six Florida SUS institutions (UF, FSU, UCF, UWF, USF, and FAU); as a consultant for the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges; as one of the authors of AGB's book College & University Foundations; as a chapter author in the AGB publication The New Realities for Public University Foundations; as an expert witness in two lawsuits involving university-related foundations; and having served as chief executive officer of four university-related foundations

Our review was done in the context of the BOT policy on Direct Support Organizations (DSOs) because it imposes requirements for provisions to be included in each DSO's articles of incorporation and/or bylaws.

To do so we reviewed the:

- FAMU BOT Policy 2018.01 Direct Support Organizations
- FAMU Foundation's Bylaws
- FAMU Foundation's Articles of Incorporation
- FAMU Internal Management Memorandum 2003.01
- FAMU Regulation Chapter 11.001
- Florida Statute 617.0202, Nonprofit Articles of Incorporation; content.
- Florida Statute 617.0206, Nonprofit Bylaws
- Florida Statute 1004.28, Direct Support Organizations
- Florida Board of Governors Regulation 9.011 Direct Support Organizations
- Alexander Haas FAMU Foundation Assessment and Development Plan May 5, 2021

II. FINDINGS

A. FAMU BOT Policy 2018.01 -- Direct Support Organizations

The University's policy on DSOs is in compliance with the Florida statute on DSOs and the Florida Board of Governors regulation on DSOs. Further, in Section D the policy goes beyond the statutory and regulatory provisions to require each DSO to include 12 provisions in its 'articles of incorporation and bylaws, together' as well as a requirement in Section C 2 to reference the policy and Regulation 11.001. As such, it makes the FAMU Foundation's bylaws exceedingly lengthy and cumbersome. Typically, these requirements are addressed most effectively in a memorandum of understanding between the University and the DSO.

The policy references 'continued certification' but does not specify anything other than submitting the articles of incorporation and bylaws. The FAMU Foundation bylaws in Article XIV Reporting Requirements provide for a compliance report to the President annually by June 30 to maintain its certification.

B. FAMU Foundation Articles of Incorporation

The articles of incorporation as amended and restated in 2006 are also exceedingly lengthy and cumbersome, with extensive recitations of authority despite the Florida statutory specification that 'The articles of incorporation need not set forth any of the corporate powers enumerated in this act.'

The statute also includes a requirement for inclusion in the articles of incorporation: 'A provision to the effect that the corporation will be subordinate to and subject to the authority of any head or national association, lodge, order, beneficial association, fraternal or beneficial society, foundation, federation, or other corporation, society, organization, or association not for profit,' if indeed the corporation is subject to the authority of another entity. It is not clear whether this applies to the relationship between the FAMU BOT and the Foundation.

The articles do not include a provision for indemnification to protect board members when acting in good faith.

The dissolution clause in the articles provides for the transfer of assets to the University if it is in existence at the time of dissolution.

C. FAMU Foundation Bylaws

The Foundation's bylaws have been amended four times since we reviewed them in 2021, and the latest version was approved November 18, 2023.

Consistent with recommendations in our assessment, a number of policy provisions have been removed and replaced with board policies. That said, the bylaws are still unwieldy and include provisions better left to Foundation board policies such as the role and responsibilities of board members and the confidentiality of Foundation documents as just two examples.

As with the articles of incorporation, there are several lengthy recitations where reference to a statute or policy might suffice as permitted in the BOT policy.

We found a number of issues we believe need to be addressed.

- Article I, Section 4 goes into extensive detail about the board and members' fiduciary responsibility of care but does not address the other fiduciary duties of loyalty and obedience. All that is needed is a statement to the effect that the board has the authority granted to it by Florida statute, Board of Governors regulations, and BOT policy. Board member duties are better left to policy.

- Article I Section 4 is followed by a misnumbered Section 2 Conflicts and Duality of Interest. That having been said, this is an area better left to policy, rather than being included in the bylaws. Additional typographical or wording errors are in the Audit Committee reference to ‘biannual meetings’ when we suspect ‘semiannual’ was intended and in the Board Governance and Stewardship Committee where ‘planning for leadership succession’ appears twice in succession.
- Article II Section 1 d includes a provision which is counter to the spirit of term limits by including only those members whose initial terms began January 1, 2024, and by providing for a third four-year term under exceptional circumstances.
- Article II Section 3 includes seven ex officio or designated members, all with voting privileges. Not included among the seven is the University’s chief academic officer, a position frequently represented on foundation boards, and the Rattler Booster board President or designee. While it is important for the BOD to hear the perspective of faculty and students, it may not be realistic to expect them to bear the full responsibility of board membership with its fiduciary duties. Their voice, not their vote, is paramount. Similarly, while it is important for coordination of fundraising efforts for the National Alumni Association and Rattler Boosters to be working in tandem with the Foundation and have their voices heard, that does not necessitate a vote.
- Article II Section 4 Executive Director details duties best left to a job description, rather than simply saying something like ‘shall be the chief executive officer of the Foundation with other duties as assigned by the Board of Directors’.

- Article II Section 5 President of the University does not include all of the elements in the BOT policy and is at variance with the policy concerning the President or his designee serving on the board and committee membership.
- Article II Section 6 Emeritus Board Members is vague in saying they may attend 'most' meetings and events. Depending on their number they could make meetings of the board unwieldy.
- Article II Section 7 Honorary Board Members has no limits and thus, like Emeritus Board members, may make for unwieldy board meetings.
- Article II Section 10 Removal of Board Members provides more detail than necessary rather than simply saying the board may remove members with or without cause.
- Article II Section 12 Communication Between Board Members again might simply be replaced with a statement that the board will comply with the Florida Government in the Sunshine statute.
- Article III Standing Committees again goes into far more detail than is necessary in bylaws and is frequently addressed far more simply with provision for an executive committee and a committee responsible for nominations and other committees as determined and charged by the board.
- Article III Section 9 Advisory Board, in addition to Emeritus and Honorary members, appears to be overkill and a burden on staff with limited return.
- Article IV Section 1 Meetings provides for semiannual meetings, far too infrequent to address the work of a board for an organization with revenue and assets at the level of the FAMU Foundation.
- Article IV Section 2 Quorum For Transacting Business provides for a quorum of half the board, an unusually low level.

- Article IV Section 4 Presiding Officer(s) can be covered in the officer job descriptions.
- Article IV Section 5 Collective Authority and Action is another area that can be covered by simply referencing the statute.
- Article V Order of Business is not necessary.
- Article VI Approved Major Activities is not necessary.
- Article X Confidentiality of Foundation Documents is a matter better left to referencing the statute.
- Article XI Checks is a matter better left to policy.
- Article XII Audits Section 1 would be better covered in a board charge to a committee.
- Article XII Section 2 Operational Audit has only been followed irregularly and thus might be better addressed as a charge to a committee to conduct one as needed.
- Article XIII Budgets is an item that, were it included in a MOU, would not need to be included in the bylaws.
- We could not find language in the bylaws complying with BOT policy D 2 and 10.

III. RECOMMENDATIONS

A. FAMU Board of Trustees Policy 2018.01 on DSOs

1. Amend the policy to remove the requirement in Section D for the inclusion of the 12 provisions in the DSO's bylaws and specify the procedure for continued certification.
2. Develop a memorandum of understanding (MOU) between the University and the DSO to include the requirements of the policy and any other provisions the University may deem appropriate.

The MOU also should require the DSO to meet annually with the BOT Committee on Direct Support Organizations and Athletics to review the DSO's request for continued certification, the MOU, and any other relevant issues.

B. FAMU Foundation Articles of Incorporation

1. Amend and restate the articles of incorporation to include that which is required by statute.
2. Include a provision for indemnification of board members acting in good faith.
3. Revise the dissolution clause to stipulate that dissolution is triggered if the BOT decertifies the Foundation and that the assets of the Foundation are transferred to the University BOT or a nonprofit organization it specifies.
4. Seek legal advice as to whether the statutory provision that requires a statement identifying any organization to which the corporation is subordinate would necessitate a description of how the Foundation is subject to the BOT on a number of matters.

C. FAMU Foundation Bylaws

1. Given the extensiveness of the changes we are recommending we believe it is best to start from scratch in developing the bylaws. The document should be tightly written referencing statutes, regulations, and policies where necessary without reciting them. The document should be simple and straightforward so that adherence to it can be relatively easy. Having to submit a copy to the IRS with the annual 990 report every time there is a substantial change in the bylaws is a nuisance when the most frequent changes actually are policy updates.

2. Do not include the section on Conflict and Duality of Interest but leave that issue to policy.
3. Remove the provision for a possible third four-year term for members; remove the provision that limits the future terms of a board member who resigns; clarify that a board member initially elected to fill a partial term is still eligible to serve two four-year terms following the initial partial term; and add a provision that a board member who has served two full terms is not eligible for re-election until a year has passed since conclusion of the second term.
4. Remove the provision grandfathering in board members whose terms began prior to January 1, 2024. Divide those members into three classes by length of service and revise the terms of those in the longest-serving class to end December 31, 2025, those of the next longest-serving class to end December 31, 2026, and those of the third-longest serving class to end December 31, 2027.
5. Consider changing the positions held by the National Alumni Association President or her/his designee, the Director of Alumni Affairs, the President of the Rattler Boosters or her/his designee, the faculty member, and the student from ex officio members to representatives to the board. Consider including the University's chief academic officer as a board member along with the chief financial officer so that these important viewpoints are represented. Each ex officio or designated board member should have a vote to carry out her/his fiduciary duties. The most important ex officio votes are those of the President or her/his designee and the BOT Chair or her/his designee, because they represent the position of the University on matters on which the board is voting.
6. Do not include the description of the University President's duties since these should be included in the MOU.

7. The Emeritus Board Member provision should be included but revised to remove attendance at Board meetings. They can be honored with their names listed wherever the board is listed (website, letterhead, e.g.), at events such as an annual reunion of board members, by serving on a committee, or invited to speak at a board meeting on an issue where their counsel would be valuable.
8. Evaluate the benefit of Honorary Board members in light of the staff time required to service these members. The return on investment would likely be low to poor. As a result, consider eliminating this program at the end of the latest appointed members' terms.
9. Revise the provision on removing board members to be with or without cause.
10. Do not include the section on Communication Between Board Members, but simply include a phrase such as "the board will conduct its business and communications in compliance with the statute."
11. Consider including only the Executive Committee and Governance Committee, broadly describing the scope of those committees, and leaving the more detailed descriptions of their responsibilities to a committee charter. Leave to the Board the establishment and charging of other committees. Align additional committees with core functions, thus creating only three additional committees: Finance, Administration, and Investment; Audit; and Development.
12. Evaluate the benefit of the Advisory Board against the work involved and consider eliminating it, similar to the recommendation about Honorary Board members.
13. Provide for quarterly board meetings.
14. Require a larger quorum, such as a majority of the elected board members.
15. Do not include the section on presiding officers but revise the job descriptions accordingly.

16. Do not include the sections on Collective Authority and Actions, Order of Business, Approved Major Activities, Confidentiality of Foundation Documents, Checks, Audits, and Budgets.

IV. CONCLUSION

This review was conducted fairly rapidly to respond to the request to have it completed expeditiously, and thus we look forward to discussing it with you to ensure that we have not erred in our understanding or interpretation of documents and practices.

In addition to considering bylaw revisions, there should be a review of FAMU Foundation policies. There were a number of policy recommendations in our assessment, most notably a gift acceptance policy, and there likely will need to be additional policies developed in light of bylaw changes. We would be pleased to assist you in that regard as part of our current engagement.

Further, there should be a review of the Foundation's annual certification report as provided for in Article XIV of its bylaws. We recommend that this be conducted by the University's internal audit office.
