

Regulation of

Florida A&M University

4.100 Academic Grievances

The purpose of an academic grievance is to give students a fair review and an opportunity to be heard. Students are normally expected to follow the procedures established by the college, school and/or academic unit in which they are pursuing a course of study; however, academic grievances regarding a course grade must be filed with the college, school and/or academic unit in which the course is offered.

Each college, school and/or academic unit within the University must establish internal procedures for addressing student grievances pertaining to academic matters. Academic grievance procedures shall be available in the Office of the Dean of the respective college or school, in the office of the appropriate officer in charge of an academic unit, and in the Student Handbook.
