

SUMMARY OF REGULATION: This Regulation is promulgated pursuant to Section 1001.74(4) and (11) Florida Statutes, which authorized University Boards of Trustees to establish fees pursuant to 1009.24. Therefore, the application fee, orientation fee and nonrefundable admissions deposit are being incorporated in the Regulation with other statutorily authorized fees.

THE FULL TEXT OF THE REGULATION IS:

6C3-3.018 Miscellaneous Fees.

(1) Florida A & M University has established the fees set forth in this Regulation. The fees listed are in addition to fees set forth in other Florida A & M University Regulations and other charges that are authorized by law.

(2) Application Fee – An individual who applies for admission to Florida A & M University shall pay a non-refundable application fee in the amount of $20.00. This fee is waived for applicants who provide documentation that they have received a fee waiver because of economic need as determined by the College Board of the American College Testing Program.

(3) Orientation Fee - $25.00.

(4) Nonrefundable admissions deposit - The University President may impose a nonrefundable admissions deposit of $200.00 for undergraduate, graduate and professional degree programs. The admissions deposit paid by an individual shall be applied toward payment of that individual's tuition upon enrollment. The admissions deposit shall not be reimbursed to an individual who does not enroll in the term offered for admission and who does not withdraw his or her acceptance of admission prior to the applicable deadline as published in the University's Catalog. Such funds shall be deposited and used in accordance with Section 1009.24(13), F.S., as now or hereafter amended. The admissions deposit is waived for those individuals who have provided documentation that they have received an application fee waiver because of economic need as determined by the College Board, American College Testing Program and the Law School Admissions Council.

(5) Off-campus educational activities – The Board of Trustees will adopt by written resolution fees for off-campus course offerings when the location results in specific identifiable increased costs to the University. These fees will be in addition to the regular tuition and fees charged to students enrolling in these courses on-campus. The additional fees charged are for the purpose of recovering the increased costs resulting from off-campus offerings. The University shall use the additional fees collected to cover the increased cost of these courses and reimburse the appropriate Educational and General Fund, or the other appropriate fund if the costs are incurred in other than Educational and General Funds. “Costs” as used in this Regulation includes any increased costs to the University that are directly related to the delivery of the goods and services. As used herein, “off-campus” refers to locations other than regular main campus, branch campuses and centers.
