UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES

Mission

The mission of the Florida A&M University Libraries is to provide a user centered information environment that supports inspirational teaching, exemplary research, meaningful service, and lifelong learning to the local and global university community.

Libraries

Main Library Coleman Memorial Library

Samuel H. Coleman Memorial Library, the University's main library, is named for Samuel Harrison Coleman, who served the University as general alumni president for 14 years. The Library was built in 1948, renovated in 1972, expanded in 1990 and again in 2004. The 88,964 square foot facility includes an information literacy classroom, group study rooms, graduate study carrels, a student digitization suite, a student presentation practice room, a student study lounge, and a cafe. Along with the additional 20,000 square feet available in the branch libraries the University Libraries provide a seating capacity of 970. The branch libraries, which are located in selected schools and colleges, offer resources and services in their respective disciplines.
