About AbbVie

We work every day to discover and address many of the world's most pressing health challenges.

We are scientists, engineers, researchers, communicators, manufacturing specialists, regulatory experts, marketing professionals and more. We're also parents, brothers, sisters, friends, community leaders and volunteers. We come together every day to create, discover and deliver new ways to improve people's health.

Equity, Equality,
Diversity & Inclusion

Unleashing your full potential.

We offer that.
