Student Unusual Circumstances

Do unusual circumstances prevent the student from contacting their parents, or would contacting their parents pose a risk to the student? This information will help us evaluate the student’s ability to pay for school.

Yes  No

A student may be experiencing unusual circumstances if they:

Left home due to an abusive or threatening environment;

Are abandoned by or estranged from their parents;

Have refugee or asylee status and are separated from their parents, or their parents are displaced in a foreign country;

Are a victim of human trafficking;

Are incarcerated, or their parents are incarcerated, and contact with the parents would pose a risk to the student;

Are otherwise unable to contact or locate their parents.

If the student does not have a safe, stable place to live because of such circumstances, they may be considered a homeless youth and should review the answer to question 6 about being unaccompanied and homeless.
