- Miss FAMU states that adding a hierarchy to the royal court will ruin the tradition that FAMU has set; states that there is no money

- Senator Gaines moved to open the gallery until the end of the discussion
- Miss FAMU explains that a panel selects the Royal Escorts instead of an election being held
- Pro-Tempore Person states without the input of the student body, there would be no Mr. FAMU
- Pro-Tempore Person states that the viewpoint and job of the senate is to serve the student body as a whole
- Vice Chairman Askew mentions that there is still a chance that within the selection of the escorts, there will be representation of the student body
- Royal Court Escort mentions that the escorts are able to represent the values and integrity of FAMU a lot better now versus there being an election
- Chairman McClover states that with the current selection process, every male on campus does not feel like they have the same opportunities; the royal court is supposed to be representation of the whole school

- Chairman McClover states that their will be a formal meeting with the royal court and the committee
- Chairwoman Braclet inquires on the purpose of closing the meeting to just those two entities
- Senator Gaines states that she is going to gather all of the questions that the senate has and speak on their behalf
- Senator Barnes asks Miss FAMU about the execution of representing the student body while trying to appeal to FAMU's tradition; she asks how one can be done without neglecting the other

- Senator Barnes inquires about the pricing of the student tickets versus the VIP ticket
- VP Williams states that the price of the floor tickets are at a flat rate because they are limited; the $50 tickets will increase every two weeks as we get closer to the concert
