N. Old Business

- i. CAB25FA-001 The Formal Integration of Mister Titles to the Royal Court
 - Senator Gaines stated that the biggest discussion point that was deliberated on was the difference between culture and tradition
 - Chairman McClover stated points that Ms. Thurman stated within the meeting
 - i. Ms. Thurman previously stated that most of the escorts that are chosen are not the campaign type
 - ii. More money would be included with funding and individually
 - iii. Platform points have to align with the attendant of that class
 - iv. If they are going to be called misters, they should get a sash
 - v. There has been a lot of interest shown over the past years for the informational meeting about escorts
 - vi. She shared her disappointment in the fact that all of the escorts last year pledged Alpha; this may have fueled the rumors of there being bias in choosing escorts
 - vii. According to the advisors, the fact that many pledged had no correlation to the interview process
 - viii. She stated that making it election based would turn it into a popularity contest
 - ix. It would add 2 more people to the court in the Fall without the proper summer training
 - Chairman McClover shared some of the concerns Ms. Mallory held in the meeting
 - i. The escorts only receive five hundred eighty-three dollars apiece; money would have to be raised for the other items
 - ii. Suggested that one additional escort to be selected rather than elected
 - Chairman McClover stated that there is no legality issue in regard to Senate Bill 266
 - Senator Gaines moved to open the gallery
 - Chairman McClover stated that the rumors of there being bias are indeed facts; there is bias involved
 - Ms. Thurman suggested there still be a formal meeting with the royal court
 - Ms. Thurman states that everyone on the committee gets a vote
 - Senator Gaines moved to be placed in open discussion
 - Pro-Tempore Person states that the bill will not be affected during the current constitutional amendments

- 82% of the student body that voted in the last spring election; 91% of freshman; 84% of the sophomore; 80% of juniors; 76% of seniors; 76% of graduate level students; 76% of the college of law students
- Chairman Williams moved to accept the changes made to this piece of legislation
- Chairman McClover accepted the changes
- Chairman McClover moved to accept this piece of legislation

iv. SR25FA-004 Board of Chaplains

- The intention of this bill is to add a chaplain committee to assist the Judicial and Rules Chair
- Senator Gaines mentioned that there are a lot other of other organizations that do the same thing
- Senator Hill inquiries about being allowed to allow faith-based committee
- Pro-Tempore Person responds in saying that since the J&R chair is the chaplain of the senate, there would not be an issue regarding separation of church and state
- Chairman McClover mentions that this would be a good committee to have under the SGA President
- SGA President states that this is something that can be changed within the IROP to where it is enforced every time
- Pro Tempore Person moved to send this piece of legislation to the Student Relations Committe and then to the Judicial and Rules Committee
